Welcome to Annandale High School

On behalf of the Annandale High School student body, faculty, and administration, I want to welcome you to another fine year of interscholastic competition.

As Annandale High School begins its third decade of service to its school-community, it wishes to point with pride to its past scholastic and athletic achievements. We hope that you, our parents and patrons, share this pride and will continue to support our athletic activities by attending all of the events throughout the year. We hope that all our games will be good examples of sportsmanship conduct which typifies the Virginia High School League.

Once again, welcome to all guests, students and patrons.
